Economic Update

- The CBE hiked overnight rates by 100 bps signaling the first hike to occur since May 2017, and implying overnight deposit rate of 9.25%, and overnight lending rate of 10.25%. Moreover, the EGP was devalued by around 15% back to 2018 levels in an action that aims to keep foreign liquidity in the local market and preserving global financial markets confidence in Egypt. Finally, the CBE stated that exchange rate flexibility is an important factor to maintain the country's competitiveness.
- The government announced lowering its real GDP growth target in FY22/23 from 5.7% to 5.5% due to the effects of the Russian Ukrainian war on our economy. Moreover, the government indicated its plan to restrict its fiscal budget in order to adjust for the implications of the war.
- Egypt started discussing with the IMF a new possible loan as the Russian Ukrainian War is adding further pressure on the country's economy. The IMF indicated that its staff is working closely with Egyptian authorities to prepare for a program that helps provide sustainable economic stability, while emphasizing that exchange rate flexibility is essential to absorb external shocks during uncertain time, and that a prudent fiscal and monetary policy will also be needed to preserve macroeconomic stability.
- Saudi Arabia deposited USD5 billion in the CBE with one-year maturity that can be renewed based on mutual agreement. Moreover, the Saudi Public Investment Fund (PIF) is aiming to attract USD10 billion worth of investments in cooperation with the Sovereign Fund of Egypt. The Egyptian government indicated that investments are part of a package of Saudi projects that will be established in Egypt with details to be announced as soon as possible.
- The government announced signing USD5 billion worth of investment deals with Qatar. The government gave no details of the signed investment deals indicating only that the two countries will set up a joint committee to strengthen cooperation across different fields.
- The CBE announced that Egypt's foreign reserves declined in March 2022 to USD37.1 billion from USD41.0 billion in February 2022, this has been the first decline in the past 22 months.
- Egypt's headline inflation jumped to 10.5% in March up from 8.8% in February implying the highest monthly inflation figure since June 2019, and an average inflation figure of 6.5% for 8M21/22 compared to an average of 4.5% in FY20/21. The jump in inflation was led by a sharp rise in food prices that accelerated driven by a wide range increase in fruits and vegetables, mainly.

Strategy

- The fund manager will let duration fall naturally, in order to navigate expected volatility and possible redemptions in the short term, while still aiming to benefit from relatively high yields in anticipation of gradual economic recovery.
